						Bea	uty	,
					Sc	Scheme of Work for Academic Year September 2024 - July 2025
	Lesson	Term 1	Lesson	Term 2	Lesson	Term 3	Lesson	Term 4	Lesson	Term 5	Lesson	Term 6
Class		UC04 Create your own hair and beauty image		Care and Hygiene in the Salon		Care for your own skin		Care for your own hands		Apply own makeup		Paint your own nails and	1	State which hair and beauty techniques can be used together to make up your image	1	State the importance of a clean and hygiene work area in the salon	1	Identify conditions that may stop or change how you care for your skin	1	Identify the structure of the nail	1	Identify structure of the skin		Identify conditions that may stop or change the treatment
3 VTCT e in Hair COEC2	2	State why it is important to create a poster of your hair and beauty image	2	State the methods used to clean, sterlise and sterlise and disinfect tools and equipment	2	Identify the skin types and skin structure	2	Identify the structure of the skin	2	Identify conditions to stop treatment	2	Identify the different nail shapes
. 3.7 CO	3	Create a poster of ideas for a hair and beauty image	3	State ways to work safely in the salon	3	Identify the correct products	3	State the correct action for reactions	3	Identify conditions to stop treatment	3	Identify the structure of the nail
LEVEL 3 rtificate Skills C	4	Prepare yourself and your work area for creating your beauty image	4	Demonstrate how to clean and prepare your work area	4	State the correct action to take for possible reactions	4	Identify the conditions of the nail	4	Identify your skin type and face shape	4	Identify the products used to paint your nails
Y LE	5	Create a hair and beauty image on yourself	5	Demonstrate how to maintain a clean and safe work area	5	Carry out a visual study of your skin and cleanse, tone and moisturise	5	Identify the conditions of the nail	5	State the correct action for reactions	5	State the correct action to take for a possible reaction
ENTRY I	6	Create a hair and beauty image on yourself	6	Demonstrate how to work safely and hygienically	6	Enter learning focus of the week for week 6 here	6	Identify products used to care for your hands	6	Prepare and apply make-up	6	Clean, shape and paint your nails
Extend	7		7	Demonstrate keeping your work area tidy	7	Enter learning focus of the week for week 7 here	7		7		7
û	Lesson	Term 1	Lesson	Term 2	Lesson	Term 3	Lesson	Term 4	Lesson	Term 5	Lesson	Term 6
Class	Lesson	Create a hair and beauty image using	Lesson	Follow health and safety in a salon	Lesson	Skincare	Lesson	Hand and nail care	Lesson	Make-Up Application	Lesson	Customer Service Skills
	1	colour Know how to create a hair and beauty image	1	Know how to follow health and satey practices	1	State the importance of a skin analysis	1	Identify the conditions that stop a treatment	1	Identify conditions of the skin and it's	1	Explain the importance of first impressions
1 Extended Certificate iir and Beauty Skills	2	using colour Be able to create a hair an beauty image	2	in the salon Be able to follow health and safety practices	2	Identify the different skin types and features	2	State importance of recognising the conditions		importance Identify the structure and functions of the skin	2	State the possible results of poor
erti V Sk	3	using colour Describe the skills and techniques you can	3	Outline health and safey laws that affect	3	Identify the conditions that would stop a	3	State possible reactions and action to take	3	Identify face shapes and skin types	3	communication Understand the principles of offering good
ed C	1	use to create your image using colour To know why it is important to create a mood	1	employees and cients in a salon State the difference between a risk and a	1	treatment. State the possible reactions Identify the structure and functions of the skin		To be able to identify nail structure	4	Identify face shapes and skin types	1	customer service To know to create a professional image at end d Be	-	board for your hair and beauty image Plan and create a mood board of ideas for	-	hazard Identify the essential equipment needed for a	-	,	5	To state different nail shapes	5	Identify the products used in a make-up	-	work Demonstrate the ability to communicate ina
r an	5	your hair and beauty image using colour Communicate effictively and responsibly with	5	fridt aid kit Carry out a simple risk assessment of the	5	Identify products used in a mini facial	5	Identify the products used for hand and nail	5	application State the contraindications and actions to take	5	variety of ways Demonstrate the ability to communicate ina
F 1	7	others	-	salon Follow safe and hygienicworking practices,	-		0	care	7	for a reaction	-	variety of ways
LEVEL 1 E	7		/	follow emergency procedures	/		/		/		/
	Lesson	T 4	1	T 0								Towns C
Class		Term 1	Lesson		Lesson	Term 3	Lesson	Term 4	Lesson	Term 5	Lesson	Term 6
Class		Create an image based on a theme	Lesson	Follow health and safety practice in the salon	Lesson	Basic skincare	Lesson	Term 4 Basic manicure	Lesson	Term 5 Basic photographic make-up	Lesson	Skin Care and Manicure Assessment
H ä	1	-	Lesson 1	Follow health and safety practice in the	Lesson 1		Lesson 1	-
H ä	1 2	Create an image based on a theme	1 2	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety	1 2	Basic skincare Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of	Lesson 1	Basic manicure	1	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the		Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin
H ä	1 2 3	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look	1 2 3	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety	1 2	Basic skincare Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action	1 2 3	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions	1	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment		Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis
rtificate in Hair Skills		Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme	1 2 3 4	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained	1 2 3	Basic skincare Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and	1 2	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions.	1 2	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the		Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial
rtificate in Hair Skills	3	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme	1 2 3 4 5 5	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and	1 2 3	Basic skincare Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions	1 2 3	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes	1 2	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take		Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail
Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan	1 2 3 4 5 6	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon	1 2 3	Basic skincare Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin	1 2 3 4	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure	1 2 3	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up		Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes
2 Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 7	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be	1 2 3	Basic skincare Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin	1 2 3 4 5	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used	1 2 3	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones		Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up
Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3 4 5 6	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board Research themes for an image and evaluate	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be maintained Describe the emergency procedures that need to be followed, outline correct firefighting equipment	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in a facial	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used Describe the massage movements	1 2 3	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones Create a mood board including a 2D visual	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up application
LEVEL 2 Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board Research themes for an image and evaluate	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be maintained Describe the emergency procedures that need to be followed, outline correct firefighting equipment	1 2 3	Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in a facial	1 2 3 4 5	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used Describe the massage movements	1 2 3	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones Create a mood board including a 2D visual		Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up application
LEVEL 2 Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3 4 5 6	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board Research themes for an image and evaluate Term 1 Apply Make Up Describe workplace requirements for	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be maintained Describe the emergency procedures that need to be followed, outline correct firefighting equipment Term 2 Apply Make Up Describe how to identify skin classifications,	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in a facial Term 3 Apply make-up State the importance of using products,	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used Describe the massage movements	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones Create a mood board including a 2D visual	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up application Term 6 Instruction on Makeup Application 2k-Describe the use and purpose of make-up
LEVEL 2 Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3 4 5 6	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board Research themes for an image and evaluate Term 1 Apply Make Up	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be maintained Describe the emergency procedures that need to be followed, outline correct firefighting equipment Term 2 Apply Make Up	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in a facial Term 3 Apply make-up	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used Describe the massage movements Term 4 Apply make-up State the contra-actions that may occur. State the importance of completing the treatment to a satisfactory level. State the	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones Create a mood board including a 2D visual Term 5 Apply make-up	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up application Term 6 Instruction on Makeup Application
LEVEL 2 Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3 4 5 6	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board Research themes for an image and evaluate Term 1 Apply Make Up Describe workplace requirements for preparing for a treatment State the environmental conditions suitable for	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be maintained Describe the emergency procedures that need to be followed, outline correct firefighting equipment Term 2 Apply Make Up Describe how to identify skin classifications, types, conditions and facial features Describe how to identify skin classifications, types, conditions and facial features Describe the contra-indications which prevent	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in a facial Term 3 Apply make-up State the importance of using products, equipment to suit the clients treatment needs State the importance of using products, equipment to suit the clients treatment needs State the importance of positioning yourself	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Basic manicure Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used Describe the massage movements Term 4 Apply make-up State the contra-actions that may occur. State the importance of completing the treatment to a satisfactory level. State the imporatance of completing record cards. State the aftercare advice that should be	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones Create a mood board including a 2D visual Term 5 Apply make-up State the names/position of bones Describe the circulation system Understand the positions/action of the	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up application Term 6 Instruction on Makeup Application 2k-Describe the use and purpose of make-up tools and products 2p-State the importance of instructing the client to promote understanding
LEVEL 2 Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3 4 5 6 7 Lesson 1	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board Research themes for an image and evaluate Term 1 Apply Make Up Describe workplace requirements for preparing for a treatment State the environmental conditions suitable for make-up Describe the consultation techniques	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be maintained Describe the emergency procedures that need to be followed, outline correct firefighting equipment Term 2 Apply Make Up Describe how to identify skin classifications, types, conditions and facial features Describe the contra-indications which prevent or restrict application Describe the contra-indications which prevent	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in a facial Term 3 Apply make-up State the importance of using products, equipment to suit the clients treatment needs State the importance of using products, equipment to suit the clients treatment needs State the importance of positioning yourself and client correctly Explain how to use corrective methods to suit	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used Describe the massage movements Term 4 Apply make-up State the contra-actions that may occur. State the importance of completing the treatment to a satisfactory level. State the imporatance of completing record cards. State the aftercare advice that should be provided Describe the structure and functions of the	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones Create a mood board including a 2D visual Term 5 Apply make-up State the names/position of bones Describe the circulation system Understand the positions/action of the muscles of the head, neck and shoulders State the position/action muscles face,neck	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up application Term 6 Instruction on Makeup Application 2k-Describe the use and purpose of make-up tools and products 2p-State the importance of instructing the client to promote understanding 2q-Describe the importance of evaluating the effectiveness of the instruction 1h-Describe the skin classifications, revise the
LEVEL 2 Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3 4 5 6 7 Lesson 1 2 3	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board Research themes for an image and evaluate Term 1 Apply Make Up Describe workplace requirements for preparing for a treatment State the environmental conditions suitable for make-up Describe the consultation techniques Describe the consultation techniques Explain the importance of carrying out a	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be maintained Describe the emergency procedures that need to be followed, outline correct firefighting equipment Term 2 Apply Make Up Describe how to identify skin classifications, types, conditions and facial features Describe the contra-indications which prevent or restrict application Describe the contra-indications which prevent or restrict application State how to communicate in a professional	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in a facial Term 3 Apply make-up State the importance of using products, equipment to suit the clients treatment needs State the importance of positioning yourself and client correctly Explain how to use corrective methods to suit client needs Explain how to use corrective methods to suit	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used Describe the massage movements Term 4 Apply make-up State the contra-actions that may occur. State the importance of completing the treatment to a satisfactory level. State the imporatance of completing record cards. State the aftercare advice that should be provided Describe the structure and functions of the skin	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson 1 2 3 4	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones Create a mood board including a 2D visual Term 5 Apply make-up State the names/position of bones Describe the circulation system Understand the positions/action of the muscles of the head, neck and shoulders State the position/action muscles face,neck and shoulders	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up application Term 6 Instruction on Makeup Application 2k-Describe the use and purpose of make-up tools and products 2p-State the importance of instructing the client to promote understanding 2q-Describe the skin classifications, revise the skin types, conditions and facial features 2s-State the importance of completing the
LEVEL 2 Extended Certificate in Hair and Beauty Skills	3 4 5 6 7 Lesson 1 2 3	Create an image based on a theme Research themes for a themed look To create an image based on a theme To create an image based on a theme Identify the key points in an action plan Explain the purpose of a mood board Research themes for an image and evaluate Term 1 Apply Make Up Describe workplace requirements for preparing for a treatment State the environmental conditions suitable for make-up Describe the consultation techniques Describe the consultation techniques	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Follow health and safety practice in the salon Know how to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Be able to maintain health and safety practices in the salon Outline the legisilation, codes of practice and workplace policies that need to be maintained and followed in a safe working salon Indentify the difference between a hazard and a risk Describe hazards that may occur in a salon and the ones that need to be maintained Outline the ways in which a clean and hygienic salon environment can be maintained Describe the emergency procedures that need to be followed, outline correct firefighting equipment Term 2 Apply Make Up Describe how to identify skin classifications, types, conditions and facial features Describe the contra-indications which prevent or restrict application Describe the contra-indications which prevent or restrict application	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Identify conditions that would prevent or restrict a treatment. State the importance of recognising them State the possible reactions and the action you would take Describe the different skin types and conditions Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in a facial Term 3 Apply make-up State the importance of using products, equipment to suit the clients treatment needs State the importance of using products, equipment to suit the clients treatment needs State the importance of positioning yourself and client correctly Explain how to use corrective methods to suit client needs	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Identify the conditions that stop a treatment State importance of recognising the conditions and the possible reactions. Describe the nail structure and nail shapes Describe the skin structure Identify the products used Describe the massage movements Term 4 Apply make-up State the contra-actions that may occur. State the importance of completing the treatment to a satisfactory level. State the imporatance of completing record cards. State the aftercare advice that should be provided Describe the structure and functions of the	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Lesson	Basic photographic make-up Identify the conditions to prevent or restrict the treatment Describe the structure and functions of the skin Identify the products used in photographic make-up, state the possible reactions and the actions to take Identify the effects different light has on make-up Describe face shapes and skin tones Create a mood board including a 2D visual Term 5 Apply make-up State the names/position of bones Describe the circulation system Understand the positions/action of the muscles of the head, neck and shoulders State the position/action muscles face,neck	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	Skin Care and Manicure Assessment Describe skin types and conditions and skin analysis Describe skin structure and functions Identify conditions to prevent/change facial and nail treatments Identify the structure of the nail and nail shapes Describe the face shapes and skin tones Identify the products used in a make-up application Term 6 Instruction on Makeup Application 2k-Describe the use and purpose of make-up tools and products 2p-State the importance of instructing the client to promote understanding 2q-Describe the skin classifications, revise the skin types, conditions and facial features

Ē	7	7	Describe health and safety working practices	7	7	7	7
_								